

Financial Resources

1. What is Financial Literacy? (YouTube Video)

2. SYP Foundation

Encouraging financial empowerment through literacy, scholarship, and public service.

3. American Bankers Association (ABA)

ABA provides bankers with the tools to help youngsters gain the necessary skills they need to become financially astute. Programs cover saving, budgeting, and credit, and are designed for students from kindergarten through college.

4. Financial Literacy for: High School Students (YouTube Video)

5. Financial Aid Toolkit

The Federal Student Aid (FSA) office at the U. S. Department of Education manages the Financial Aid Toolkit, a website that consolidates FSA resources into a searchable online database intended for use by organizations and individuals who interact with, support, or counsel students and families on making financial preparations for post-secondary education.

6. Money Smart for Young People

This is a curriculum from the FDIC that features four free, age-appropriate curriculums that are designed to promote financial understanding in young people.

7. Studentaid.gov

This is a website from the U.S. Department of Education and the Northwestern Mutual Foundation containing information on obtaining money for higher education, including preparing for college, types of aid, qualifying for aid, applying for aid, and managing student loans.

8. Talkin' Money Financial Literacy Educational Video Series (YouTube Video)

9. CASH CAMPAIGN

The CASH Campaign of Maryland (Creating Assets, Savings, and Hope) is a nonprofit organization that is the result of a merger between the CASH Campaigns of Baltimore and Maryland.

10. Community College of Baltimore County – Financial Literacy

Strengthen your financial future by understanding how to create and live on a budget, the smart way to use credit, and how money management tools can help you now and in the long term.

11. Money Management Tips For Teens (YouTube Video)